

SRI KALAHASTI KALAMKARI CRAFT

Kalamkari originated from Indian Temples and is closely connected to natural elements. The Traditional process Is lengthy, meticulous and entirely eco friendly.

In this challenging times of global pandemic, Niranjn's versatile artistic capabilities have come to the forefront by creating products of International aesthetics with traditional designs.

Niranjn Jonnalagadda ensured sustained livelihood for the tribal women who worked on this art process in his facilities while extending support to other craftsmen across the region also.

The continued production of cushion covers, doorway festoons - torans, stoles is an initiative to sustain livelihoods, revive art progressively and expand the visibility to kalamkari across platforms.

Niranjn believes-

The art of Kalamkari is an offering the Divine.

It is an expression of faith and feelings.

Kalamkari products are - Organic | Hand made | Child labour free.

Support - Economic survival | Art Revival | Beyond challenges | Across Miles | New NormL
